

human rights and democracy commitments by the Lukashenko regime and loosen its unhealthy monopoly on political and economic power. I hope our efforts here today will facilitate independent Belarus' integration into democratic Europe in which the principles of democracy, human rights and the rule of law are respected. The beleaguered Belarusian people have suffered so much over the course of the last century and deserve better than to live under a regime frighteningly reminiscent of the Soviet Union. The struggle of the people of Belarus for dignity and freedom deserves our unyielding and consistent support.

This legislation is important and timely because Belarus, which now borders on NATO and the EU, continues to have the worst human rights and democracy record of any European state—bar none.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, December 8, 2006

Mr. LEWIS of Kentucky. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay public tribute to Lloyd C. Hillard, Jr., an exemplary community leader, businessman and citizen from my congressional district. Lloyd received this year's Hardin County Distinguished Citizen Award from the Boy Scouts of America during ceremonies earlier this month.

A native of Kentucky, Lloyd grew up on a farm in Pine Grove and earned college degrees from the University of Kentucky and the University of Wisconsin. Lloyd has distinguished himself as a business leader, serving as President and CEO of First Citizens Bank, and a good neighbor, through his active involvement in many community and charitable organizations.

Though never a scout himself, Lloyd's life-long example of honesty and devotion to his family and community parallel ideals championed by the Boy Scouts. He first became involved with the Scouts as a young adult, running a school recruitment program.

Lloyd has been an especially active member of our community, having served as past president and director of the Bluegrass Council Boy Scouts of America, past chairman of the North Central Kentucky Education Foundation, and former treasurer and director of the Cavalry Armor Foundation.

Lloyd was also past chairman of the Hardin County Community Foundation, Helping Hand of the Heartland, and the Hardin County Fund for the Arts. He remains an active member of the local United Way and the Elizabethtown Rotary Club.

RECOGNIZING WILLIAM "BILL" BRADFORD

HON. RALPH M. HALL

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, December 8, 2006

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize Bill Bradford of Sulphur Springs, TX, whose distinguished work in radio recently earned him the dedication of a city street in Sulphur Springs in his honor. In recognition of his many years as a radio owner, operator, and pioneer, Radio Road was recently renamed Bill Bradford Road.

Outgoing Sulphur Springs Mayor Clay Walker began pursuing the renaming of Radio Road at the suggestion of long-time Sulphur Springs resident, Jeff Massey. The idea for this change was well-received by the City Manager and members of the City Council who unanimously voted for the change. Indeed, the idea was so popular that many community leaders expressed surprise that the idea had not been thought of before.

As incoming Sulphur Springs Mayor Freddie Taylor's first official act, a framed city resolution changing the name from Radio Road to Bill Bradford Road was presented to Bill along with the first street sign to bear the name "Bill Bradford Road." Sixty days later street signs were erected on August 2nd and 3rd making the name change effective.

Bill began his radio career as a radio operator in the military during World War II and afterward became owner of radio station KSST in Sulphur Springs. In 1992 he was named Texas Association of Broadcasters'

"Pioneer of the Year," and he was installed into the Texas Radio Hall of Fame's "Hall of Honor" in 2005.

Bill has contributed his time and talent to the radio industry and to the residents of Sulphur Springs. Having lived in Sulphur Springs for nearly 60 years, Bill has been a pivotal and influential voice in chronicling the city's growth. Today I am proud to recognize a beloved and legendary citizen of Sulphur Springs, TX—Bill Bradford.

NONPROFIT ATHLETIC ORGANIZATION PROTECTION ACT OF 2006

SPEECH OF

HON. JOHN CONYERS, JR.

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 5, 2006

Mr. CONYERS. Madam Speaker, the following letter from American University, Washington College of Law Professor Andrew F. Popper outlines the problems and concerns with this legislation.

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY,
WASHINGTON COLLEGE OF LAW,
Washington, DC.

Hon. JOHN CONYERS,
Ranking Member, House Committee on the Judiciary, Washington, DC.

DEAR CONGRESSMAN CONYERS, I recently learned that the House of Representative is considering H.R. 1176, a bill that would immunize major non-profits in the university sport/entertainment field and all non-profits involved in children's activities generally. I have testified against this bill in its earlier form and have seen the current version. I very much hope this current version will be rejected. It is an awful bill, as discussed below.

The specific question posed to me was whether this bill would carve out an exception for state tort common law claims against organizations and officials who engaged in behaviors that devastated children, athletes, and others who place their trust in the non-profits that are the subject of this bill. There is reason to think actions will not be possible if this bill becomes law.

State tort law holds out the promise of a real incentive to exercise due care in precisely the kinds of programs this bill describes in its opening sections. The tragedy is, this bill would eliminate those state common law tort claims required to produce those incentives.

The argument has been made that while this bill provides explicitly comprehensive immunity for non-profit organizations in the sports/athletics and related fields, somehow it preserves the necessary state common law tort claims required to secure relief when organizations and their employees and volunteers have failed to exercise that requisite level of care required and a child or young adult has been injured as a result. If the legislation stated directly that it excluded from its unconscionable sweep of liability all State common law tort claims, that argument would have some validity. In fact, the bill does just the opposite, listing precise fields where the immunity would be inapplicable—and in that list, state common law tort claims for negligence is nowhere to be found.

Preservation of state common law tort claims for who those who have been harmed, for children, families, athletes and others swept into this bill, could occur either by direct exclusion from the legislation such as
